John Reynolds recently completed his 29th season as the Florida Tech women's head basketball coach. Widely renowned as one of the top coaches in the nation, he has developed the Panthers into a nationally ranked program. The 2002 team won the South Regional Championship and earned a berth in the Elite 8.

Sunshine State Conference Coach of the Year:
South Regional Coach of the Year: 1996–97 and 1997–98

A Message from the Camp Director
Dear Camper,

During your attendance at the John Reynolds’ Florida Tech Elite Skills Camp, you will improve in all areas of basketball skill. Not only will you have the opportunity to practice basic fundamentals, but you will be exposed to virtually every phase of the game, including strategy and various team offensive and defensive systems.

At the completion of your session of training, you will have been exposed to a well-organized program that will give you the tools to help you improve your individual skill level. We do not promise you an easy week because we expect you to work hard to improve. We promise you instruction by talented coaches committed to improving your game.

We are confident that the session you spend learning basketball with us will be one of the most rewarding and unique experiences of your life.

Sincerely,
John Reynolds

Camp Features
- Individual Skill Instruction
- Individual Evaluation
- Competitive Games
- Free Camp T-shirt
- Awards

Camp Goal: The goal of our camp is to give the best instruction on the fundamentals of basketball to each camper. Our camp staff will include the Florida Tech coaching staff and past and present Florida Tech players.

Camp Tuition: Tuition is $125 per camper. This includes a camp T-shirt.

For Online Camp registration, visit camps.fit.edu/basketball-elite-girls

Facility: The entire camp will be held on Florida Tech's campus in the Charles and Ruth Clemente Center for Sports and Recreation.
Who comes to the John Reynolds’ Florida Tech Elite Skills Camp?

1. Young players who need to learn skills early to get the most of their ability.
2. Junior high players who want and need the total “game” concept used by the camp.
3. Older high school players who need to define a position (guard/forward/center) to complete their game.
4. All players who seek to learn through an enjoyable and educational environment.

John Reynolds’ Florida Tech Elite Skills Camp For Girls
150 W. University Blvd., Melbourne, FL 32901-6975
321-674-7512

For Girls Entering Grades 7–12

June 12–16, 2017